

Angus Jennings <townmanager@hampdenmaine.gov>

Questions

1 message

Trish Niedorowski <tniedorowski@wingsinc.org>

Wed, May 25, 2016 at 5:02 PM

To: 'townmanager <townmanager@hampdenmaine.gov>', Trish Niedorowski <tniedorowski@wingsinc.org>

Could you please confirm that you received this? Thank you very much

What/ihow is hampden benefiting from this transaction?

Is Hampden offering Fullbright any tax abatement? If so for how long?

Where will the ashes be buried from the incineration ?

What is the recourse for Citizens if the oder is more than predicted and unacceptable?

Does everyone realize that the trucks coming into the facility are incredibly odorous.

Have you considered the damage to our roads relating to the heavy trucks coming in and out day in and day out? And the cost related to that?

Could you please repeat the process for approval for this project? The number of permits and where they are in the permitting process?

If they receive all the appropriate permits is it pretty much a done deal that this will happen?

Will this go from the planning Council to the full Council? Does it ever go to public vote?

Could it ever go to public vote?

What happens if our property values begin to decline due to the oder?

Trish and Stan Niedorowski
12 Charles St.

Sent from my U.S. Cellular® Smartphone